With a global reach and a multi-lingual team, IWMC offers a one-stop service for the collection of your outstanding accounts. With years of collections experience in the financial services industry coupled with international expertise and in-house investigative capabilities, IWMC has a winning receivables management methodology.

While your focus is returns on investment, let us focus on your debtors' book.

Your cash flow is our priority!

Profit and loss, balance sheets and income statements, shareholder equity, capital expenditure, consolidated cash flows, assets and liabilities, borrowings and reserves – all are priorities of the financial services industry. At IWMC, our speciality is receivables management. And our focus is on delivery!

A thorough knowledge of the financial services industry allied with international experience in receivables management and refined collections expertise, mean that IWMC are uniquely positioned to offer a world-class collections service.

With a multi-lingual team, we offer global coverage. We operate across geographical, cultural and language barriers to provide a full international debt recovery service. We are regulated by all applicable legislation.

You deal in the marketplace,
we negotiate in the world!

You protect investments;
we protect your cash flow!

PROFESSIONALISM, COMPETENCE AND INTEGRITY...

... ABILITY, SERVICE AND DELIVERY

Managing a debtors' book can be time-consuming and onerous; speak to a company that understands the collection process and specialises in its successful management. Our professional team will manage the collection process from start to finish. They have a thorough understanding of:

- the financial services industry, credit controls and insolvency processes;
- the expertise and discipline required for successful collections;
- the necessity to represent our corporate clients in such a way that their reputation is not adversely impacted; and
- the importance of regular communication with our clients.

Our service protects your client relationships while enhancing your cash flow. Banks and credit institutions use us because we understand and deliver a full service worldwide; from tracing and tracking, investigation, negotiation to consolidation, debt management and recovery.
